

A Contemporary Chamber Ballet
Inspired by the Book of Daniel

Will You Or Won't You is a story relevant to today's contemporary life. Based on the Biblical account of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, the ballet's main characters are Christians – teenagers like many of you - fighting to remain true and faithful to their God, His word, and their values, while battling the strong and misleading tide of the culture around them. When forced to bow, they remain strong, when pushed down, they rise up, when tempted, they prevail - pressing on to stand on the cornerstone of their lives – Jesus Christ.

This ballet is birthed out of the need to tell youth all around the world that Christ is far better, greater, satisfying, and frankly, more awesome than anything this culture has to offer. Come and be a part of history – the battle rages on!!

Choreography and Story Adaptation by Jiri Sebastian Voborsky
World Premiere: Ballet Magnificat! Summer Dance Intensive 2009
Performed by SDI '09 Pre Professional Company